Christmas Poetry and Drawing Competition

How quickly has this come round again? It feels like it was only a few months ago! This is the third year for the children's drawing competition. The winner will have their drawing on the front cover of the December newsletter. I love all your drawings!!!

This year I thought we could have a Christmas poetry competition as well, with it being open to ALL ages. Categories will be eight and under, nine to sixteen, and then seventeen to eldest entry. We will print in the December/January newsletter, and as always, all entries will receive a small Christmas treat!

Please remember to write your name, age, address and contact number on the back of your entry, and place in the box provided in The Poppin. Good luck.

All entries for drawing and poetry competition be in by Friday 25th. Thank you.

In recent months the PC have shared that they are considering the newsletter will be online. Next month we will have further information to share with all resident's.

Report from your District Councillor

Dear Residents

Hope you are all keeping well, and enjoying the changing colours of trees and the autumnal sunshine. Below follow some updates which I hope you will find useful. In the next issue I will update you on any outcome following the full council meeting.

South Warwickshire Local Plan update
I attended a recent briefing on the South Warwickshire Local Plan (SWLP), which will be eventually substituting our current local plan, the Core Strategy. The next public consultation will be on the Issues and Options document (likely to take place between November-January). As the SWLP evolves, eventually some policies from the existing Core Strategy that had been wholly superseded would likely be deleted. The Issues and Options consultation document will include a table identifying which policies fall into which category. I asked what happens to Neighbourhood Development Plans (including those still in progress, such as the Long Marston development plan) and the officers pointed that in some cases these will have to be reviewed in light of the SWLP and its new polices.

5 Year Land Supply calculation
Stratford District has significantly exceeded its house building targets, according to the latest calculation to March 2022. The report refers to a 'persistent oversupply', so that the council can now demonstrate 10.06 years' worth of housing land supply, rather than the 5 years that the council is required to hold. It also states that, 'the Council has now achieved six consecutive years of housing delivery in excess of 1,000 completions per annum'.

Cost-of-living Event in Meon Vale 17th October 2-7pm
This event was organised by Warwickshire County council and the Meon Vale Residents Association. The first part of the event focused on a childcare consultation. The second part focused mainly on the cost-of-living, and there were various organisations attending, which included some cost-of-living support providers.

Polling Review and Prospective Councillor's events
The Second Consultation for the polling station review closes on Monday 31 October 2022, and this can be accessed on the Council's website at www.stratford.gov.uk, by clicking on the 'Polling Station Review' button. I have supported the Village Hall as preferred polling station for the May 2023 local elections.

With elections in May, prospective (district and parish) councillor's events are being organised by Stratford District Council to find out what it means to be a councillor. If you want any further details, please email David Dalby, Interim Electoral Services Manager, at david.dalby@stratford-dc.gov.uk or call him on 01789 260228.

123plus waste collection
If you have problems with your waste collections it is best to email 123collections@stratford-dc.gov.uk or phone on 01789 260123. Please let me know too, as I continue to help residents with this new collection, so that problems, such as missed collections, can be resolved as quickly as possible. For example, I have been delivering food caddies to those residents who did not receive these yet (since August!), so please let me know if you have also been affected.

Just a reminder that there is the new Council app for smartphone users which tells you all about the collections and it will send you reminders. You can search on your phone for the Stratford District Council app, or look at this link https://www.stratford.gov.uk/waste-recycling/waste-and-recycling-app.cfm

Finally, as usual, please don't hesitate to contact me with any query, issue or concern you might have.

Warmest best wishes,
Manuela

Helen Leedham, a valued Long Marston Lady held the room in the palm of her hand as she demonstrated a Savoury Festive Flan including a vegetarian version, followed by Chocolate Tiffin and Brownies. The aroma filled the hall before everyone had a chance to take a mouth-watering sample. Helen then sent emails to the ladies, with the recipes.

Parish council comments

Following the successful transfer of the sports area and orchard of the open space (rear of Perry Orchard), and based on resident's comments, the name of the park area will be Marston Meadow. The final transfer to the area designated for community building is currently being organised. The working group are currently reviewing options on a gated entry to the site, modifications to the play area and the range of materials for the parkland pathway. There are continued discussions with SDC enforcement and WCC Biodiversity team in terms of breached conditions by the developer, and funding for the area.

The parish council are also working on measures to remedy the boundary fence to the play area in Barley Fields and required work on the wet pour surfacing. The open space working group recently met in Cubbington play area to review the equipment, surfacing and lay out of the space. Play areas and priorities for our open space will be discussed at the next parish council meeting.

The council were advised of significant issues to some of the footpaths in particular SD39. Council members examined the route and will be consulting with the land- owner to make the footpath accessible.

A resident had enquired about the poor state of hedging to the front of Barley Fields, the matter will be discussed with the ground maintenance contractor and placed on the next parish council agenda.

Residents enquired about speeding which has been a regular topic in parish council meetings. The council confirmed options will be discussed once the works by Severn Trent have been completed including another trial with the speed camera and the possible inclusion of a VAS system.

Council members discussed the assets within Meon Vale and agreed to pursue specific transfers with Quinton Parish Council. Members also discussed the request to locate a bus stop close to Londis, the matter is being reviewed along with costs, and will be on the next council agenda.

The Pavilion will shortly be undergoing some renovations to enhance the atmosphere, increase space and support the various schemes that run from the centre. Many thanks to all those who support the café, monies generated help support a number of projects. Can we also thank Helen for making super sausage rolls and Andy for the best bacon baps.

Cllr. Whittaker has been working on biodiversity and climate change reviews to determine what projects the council can undertake to support the various initiatives. We will be holding a climate change public forum in the new year that will include recycling, conserving energy, natural habitats, and a range of ideas to engage the community. Details will be posted early in the new year.

NOVEMBER

St James the Great

I was at a church meeting a couple of weeks ago and we were asked how often we thanked people for their help, and sadly very few people there had recently done this. So I thought I would offer thanks to all who support the church, and November seemed to be a good month to do this.

On the face of it November doesn't come across as a month for thanks, but on second thoughts we have All Saints and All Souls at the beginning of the month to think about people who had died, and for us to give thanks for their lives. There is also Remembrance Sunday, when we think of those who fought for us, especially in the two world wars, to enable us to have the freedom we now enjoy. We think especially of those who have lost their lives whilst fighting and those whose health has been severely compromised in this effort.

So, on behalf of our church, I would like to thank all villagers and friends who have supported our church over the years both financially and with practical help. Thanks to you, our church is still open and in good repair, since it was first built several hundred years ago. It would have fallen or been abandoned if it wasn't for the regular giving and the legacies left for all these years and for those that we're still receiving today. It has cost thousands over the years to maintain the structure of the building, and it costs us just over £8,000 per annum to keep a priest to lead in worship, take baptisms, weddings, and funerals, and without whom the church would be closed.

If we had a vicar just for our parish rather than the benefice like it was historically, it would cost our parish over £50,000 a year. We would also not have a church if it wasn't for the work of people running fundraising events, the parish council for keeping the churchyard mown, all those who help clean and repair the inside and outside of the church, the people who use and support the work of the church, with the services, helping with the accounts, and running prayer groups, etc. I could go on, but hopefully you understand what I'm trying to say and to thank you all even though I couldn't possibly mention everyone by name. Let's hope we can the church going for future generations to use and enjoy.

Church warden

Pasta Noodle Christmas Tree Cards or Ornaments

You may think you have to paint each noodle and pasta shape – but we have a quick little trick. Just grab a sandwich bag, put all your noodles/pasta in the bag and then some paint and squish around!

Once you've thoroughly coated your noodles with paint, lay them out flat to dry. Preferably on wax paper. If any of the noodles are still "stuck" together they will slightly stick when the paint dries too. However, you can easily still pull these apart once the paint is dry (this may be hard for kids to do though).

This pasta noodle macaroni craft is pretty simple to make! We alternated the fusilli noodles and the macaroni noodles to make the Christmas tree. The macaroni noodles are meant to be the garland on the tree so you can alternate these going up and down to look like it's a wavy garland. First you can make your small cards with white cardstock. Just fold them over and cut to the size you'd like.

Now start designing your Christmas tree:

We easily broke off a piece of the gold fusilli noodle to make as the tree trunk. Then you can start adding your green fusilli noodles starting at the bottom of the tree and working your way up. We did 3, then 3 or 2, 2, 1, 1, and 1 with each piece and length being a little smaller.

Glue each piece and be generous with the glue – you will want to make sure you have enough for it to stick the noodle to the card.

You can easily break the dried pasta fusilli noodles to make it the size you need. You can even turn it into an ornament! Just cut round and add a piece of twine or ribbon to hang from the tree.

Now time to make your pasta noodle Christmas tree!

Butter Bean and Chorizo Stew

Ingredients

- 200g cooking chorizo
- 2 x 400g cans chopped tomatoes
- 2 x 400g cans drained butter beans
- 1 tub fresh pesto, or 130g jar pesto

Method

Slice the chorizo and tip into a large saucepan over a medium heat. Fry gently for 5 mins or until starting to turn dark brown. Add the tomatoes and butter beans, bring to the boil, then simmer for 10 mins. Swirl through the pesto, season lightly and ladle into four bowls.

Serve with fresh sourdough/fresh bread.

Roasted Parsnip Soup with Thyme Scones

Ingredients

- About 1.2kg medium or small parsnips (750g prepared weight)
- 2 tbsp extra-virgin olive oil
- 50g freshly grated parmesan
- 15g butter
- 1 medium onion, finely chopped
- 1 tbsp plain flour, plus extra for dusting
- 1.25 litres good quality chicken stock (preferably homemade)
- 4 tbsp double cream
- Fresh thyme leaves to garnish

For the hot thyme scones

- 50g self-raising flour, plus extra to dust
- 175g wholemeal or brown self-raising flour
- 1½ tsp baking powder
- ½ tsp salt
- 50g butter, chilled and cut into small pieces, plus extra to serve
- 1 tbsp fresh thyme leaves
- 1 medium free-range egg
- 2 tbsp Greek yogurt, full-fat natural yogurt or soured cream
- About 100ml whole milk
- 1 tbsp finely grated parmesan

Method

1. Preheat the oven to 200°C/fan 180°C/ gas 6. Trim the parsnips, then peel and cut them lengthways in half or into quarters depending on their size. Drop them into a pan of boiling salted water, bring back to the boil, then cook for 4-5 minutes until just tender. Drain well, then put into a roasting tin and toss with the olive oil. Sprinkle with half the parmesan, then roast for 25-30 minutes until lightly golden brown. Remove from the oven and set aside. Turn the oven up to 220°C/fan200°C/gas 7.

2. Melt the butter in a large pan over a low heat, stir in the onion, cover and cook over a low heat for 10 minutes until very soft. Uncover, stir in the flour and cook gently for 1 minute. Gradually stir in the stock, add the roasted parsnips and any toasted cheesy bits from the bottom of the roasting tin, then bring to the boil. Cover and simmer for 10 minutes.

3. Meanwhile, make the scones. Sift the flours, baking powder and salt into the bowl of a food processor, add the butter and whizz until the mixture looks like fine breadcrumbs. Tip into a mixing bowl, stir in the thyme leaves and make a well in the centre of the ingredients. Break the egg into a measuring jug, add the yogurt or soured cream and make the mixture up to 160ml with the milk. Beat together with a fork and pour all but the last teaspoon into the well. Mix everything together briskly with a table knife into a soft, slightly sticky, dough.

4. Turn out onto a lightly floured work surface, then quickly and gently shape into a 15cm round. Lift onto a non-stick baking sheet, lightly dusted with flour, then brush with the remaining milk and egg mixture. Score the top into 6 wedges with a sharp knife. Sprinkle with the parmesan, then bake for 15-20 minutes until cooked through and golden brown.

5. Leave the soup to cool slightly, then liquidise, in batches if necessary, with the remaining 25g parmesan until smooth. Work through a sieve back into a clean pan, then taste, season and reheat gently. Stir in the cream, garnish with thyme leaves and serve with hot buttered wedges of scone.

Long Marston Village Hall

Have you ever thought of getting more involved in the village community? A great way to do so would be to join our Village Hall Management Committee. We meet usually every 5 or 6 weeks on Monday Evenings from 7.30 to about 9. We make decisions on how best to maintain our much-loved hall and arrange social events to fund its upkeep. Helping at Film Shows and other fundraisers is fun and a great way to get to know people. Come along to the next film show or the Christmas Bingo and have a chat with us or phone our booking clerk Jackie on 720328.

The Pavilion Coffee shop and Community Space

(registered charity 1196371)

We are now into our sixteenth month of opening our doors at the coffee shop, community foodshare and community space in Meon Vale. The coffee shop has an inclusive, friendly atmosphere, where you can pop in by yourself, or meet friends with no pressure on time as there is free parking right next to our building. Our coffee is genuinely Artisan roasted, and delivered fresh every week from Origin Eden, based at the bottom of Meon Hill. It's grown on a family farm now in its fourth generation, on land that has been certified biodynamic since 1946, and organic since 1928! The farm is nestled at the top of a mountain in Tapachula, Mexico, and looks out over the Pacific, with an unimaginable variety of wildlife and habitat.

The amazing Helen Leedham bakes our delicious home-made cakes, homemade sausage rolls and cheese scones, and on Saturday mornings, Andy makes a mean Bacon bap.

So the next time you are looking to go somewhere for a drink and chat, please keep us in mind. By supporting us your money will go to community projects.

As a charity we strive to support other local initiatives such as The Eco Workshop, who support adults living with learning difficulties. They are an amazing group of people who are in most days with their support workers, who help them carry out various tasks throughout the coffee shop and foodshare. We also support them by selling their beautiful handmade cards where all monies go directly to their charity.

Over the summer we hosted Free Fun Fridays for local families, with bouncy castles, magic shows, face painting, storytelling by the RSC, and craft events. Recently in the October holiday we hired James and Daryl from the charity Community Bootcamp to put the local youngsters through their paces. They had so much fun! If you have any ideas for any community projects, please share them with us.

In the upcoming months we are planning a refurb to accommodate more customers, a side room for hire, (perfect for meetings, craft clubs etc), and updating the kitchen so we can serve hot meals. Unfortunately, we do not have date yet, but we will keep you posted.

Our project is manned by our wonderful volunteers, and honestly, they are the glue that keeps our charity and doors open. They work a three-hour shift 10am – 1pm, or 1pm – 4pm, Tuesday to Saturday's. Recently, sadly due to illness we have lost two of our volunteer's. We are looking to replace asap. If you have some spare hours free during the week, love talking to other people, would love to support a local charity, or if you have any questions, please call me Steph Hillier on 07720975023, or email me at stepheniehillier@btinternet.com., or even better, pop up and see what we are about!

Fun Countdown to Christmas

The kids will love helping Santa's beard grow with fluffy cotton balls. By the 25th he will have a full beard!

To make: Cut Santa's face from white card. Add texture with coloured pencil. Cut pink cheeks, eyes, and nose from coloured paper, glue to the face.

Cut the hat from red and white craft paper; glue to the face. Glue a large cotton ball at the point of the hat.

Cut a long beard shape from white craft paper.

Write the dates of the month leading up to Christmas on the beard.

Hang the calendar and set a bowl of cotton balls and a bottle of glue nearby.

Long Marston Garden Club

Eight Members of the club visited Hill Close Gardens in Warwick on Wednesday 26th October to see one of the rare survivors of Victorian detached gardens used by Townsfolk who lived above their businesses in town centers.

They grew flowers fruit or vegetables in their small backyards. In the mid-1840s the owner of Hill Close divided the land into 32 plots and rented them out to the townspeople to be used as detached gardens. These plots were laid out with hedges, entrances, paths and summer houses or sheds.

The gardens continued to be cultivated until after the 2nd World War, when Warwick District Council began to buy them up for housing. However a residents association grew and prevented housing so that now many of the original plots were renovated and still exist today maintained by volunteers ,Warwick district Council and Heritage Lottery funded .

There are many cultivars of Hardy Chrysanthemums grown on the plots and comprise one of the few collections in the country.

This was our last visit this year and we shall be meeting in January to discuss the ideas for 2023
